DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1, and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Shilliday et al. (US 6,886,469 B2).

Shilliday et al. disclose a sheath 214 comprising the reactive polymeric material composition, glycidyl azide polymer, GAP, (col. 4, line 42 – col. 5, line 30; Fig. 2).

Election/Restrictions

3. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-9, drawn to a timing element comprising a delay composition in a sheath, the delay composition comprising a reactive polymer material..

Group II, claim(s) 10-18, drawn to a method of making a timing element comprising a reactive polymeric material in a sleeve.

Group III, claim(s) 19-21, drawn to an initiator comprising a timing element, the timing element comprising a reactive polymeric material.

Art Unit: 3641

Group IV, claim(s) 22-24, drawn to a method of making a delay initiator comprising a reactive resin

Group V, claims(s) 25-27, drawn to a method of making a delay initiator comprising a reactive polymeric material.

Group VI, claim 27, drawn to a segment of reactive polymeric material.

4. The inventions listed as Groups I-VI do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the shared special technical feature of a reactive polymer material does not amount to a special technical feature that is novel or unobvious over the prior art at least as evidenced by Shilliday et al. (US 6,886,469 B2). Therefore unity of invention does not exist between the groups. To search and examine all the inventions would place an excessive burden on the examiner.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
